Welcome to The Northern Antiques Fair, the premier Autumn fair held in North Yorkshire.

Dating back to 1951, this is Harrogate's longest standing art and antiques fair which holds an enviable reputation for its prestige and quality.

Each year, some 45 specialists from across the UK transform Hall M of the Harrogate Convention Centre into a vast gallery where a tempting selection of desirable objects from the Tudor era to the modern day is offered for sale.

The displays include period furniture, paintings, sculpture, clocks, silver, enamels, glass, boxes, oriental carpets, ceramics, treen, jewellery, maps, prints, watches, portrait miniatures, books and many other unique works of art. Browse among everything from statement pieces to small decorative items, priced from under £100 to six figure sums.

Buy with confidence from established dealers who abide by the strict codes of practice set out by the UK's leading antiques associations.

A licensed bar and restaurant, serving drinks and light meals, is available in the fair.
